SCHOOL

(BY MAYA HISSAK)

One day a woman sat by a fire and wished that she had a beautiful pretty magnificent daughter. A few minutes later a frog came to her and said: "A baby will be born in a few months."

The woman was so happy and told the father the good news. So when the baby was born they both decided that their daughter was going to go to school! Do you know why she went to school? Because she had to learn!

When she got to school she learnt many things! Wow! When she got home they had the best party ever!

WHY IS A RAVEN LIKE A WRITING DESK?

- ☞ Because a raven's wings flap up and down like a desk lid (Macie age 9, Maisie 10, Phebe 10, Amelia 10)
- ☞ They both stand on wood (Matthew 5)
- ☞ They both come with a quill (Benc 5)
- ☞ Because time flies when you are writing a story (Cora 6)

RPPS CATASTROPHE

(BY SIENNA STRANGE, AGE 10)

Unfortunately for some school's naughty children two children escaped from RPPS. One of them lifted the other up. Before long both of them were out of the school gates.

Travelling down the road they reached the post (?). One of the mums was walking by and spotted the logo on one of the boys' shirt. They got walked straight back to school!
